Program Overview:

This course is designed to provide participants with a better understanding of mental illness as it relates to law enforcement. Managing a Mental Health Crisis (MMHC) is a culmination of knowledge and skills developed by law enforcement and mental health professionals with the intention of promoting effective and high-quality responses to mental health related incidents.

This training is specifically designed for law enforcement and mental health professionals to train as a team and develop skills in which to train co-workers and members of other departments.

- Designed specifically for Michigan
- Allows for agencies to train the two-day MMHC course in-service
- Provides greater operational tools than mental health first aid
- State of Michigan's Diversion Council backs this program
- MCOLES approved and meets with MCOLES recommended annual officer trainings

Presenters: Lt. Michael Marocco (Master Trainer) is the Eastern Operations Lieutenant at the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Office and is the current Police Service Dog Unit Commander and Police Training Officer Cadre Commander.

Lisa Gentz (Master Trainer) is a mental health professional and licensed clinical social worker with a Master's Degree in Clinical/Medical Social Work from the University of Michigan.

Dr. Debra Pinals (Course Developer) is currently clinical professor of psychiatry at the University of Michigan, as well as director of the Program in Psychiatry, Law and Ethics and director of the forensic evaluation service at UM. She also serves as medical director for behavioral health and forensic programs for the Michigan Department of Health and Human Services.

Class Registration Cost: FREE (Registration for this train the trainer course is covered by funds made available by the Michigan Department of Health & Human Services.)

IMPORTANT – PLEASE READ:

Registration: To register, please contact J. Eric Waddell at jericwaddell@thecardinalgroup2.com

NOTE: All participants must also complete an Instructor Biography form for MCOLES approval/reporting.

Please obtain this form at <https://managingmentalhealthcrisis.com/instructor-biography/>.

Training teams must consist of at least 1 person from law enforcement and 1 person from community mental health. Partners should be identified prior to registration. It is highly suggested that training teams have previous experience training in a classroom environment. Registration will not be confirmed unless a complete team is registered and online forms have been completed. For additional information on the content of training or the concept of training teams, please contact Tom Cremonte at 313-670-3594 or tcremonte@mrrma.org or J.
